

Seminar : "State of European Fish Stocks in 2010"

14 September 2010

Location : Buxelles, tbd.

DRAFT AGENDA

09h00 Reception, refreshments

09h30 Introduction Maria Damanaki, European Commissioner for Maritime Affairs and Fisheries

09h30-10h00 New information concerning Atlantic, North Sea and Baltic fish stocks in 2010

Michael Sissenwine, Chair of Advisory Committee of the International Council for the Exploration of the Sea.

10h00-10h30 New information concerning fish stocks in the Mediterranean. Henri Farrugio, Chair of the Scientific Advisory Council of the General Fisheries Council for the Mediterranean

10h30 – 11h00 Refreshment Break

11h00-11h30 Trends in stocks and fisheries since 2002 John Casey, Chair of the Scientific and Economic Committee for Fisheries

11h30-12h00 Questions and Discussion

12h00-12h30 Fishers' views on stock status : results of fishers' surveys and other viewpoints from the industry. (Speaker to be nominated by ACFA)

12h30-12h45 Questions and Discussion

12h45- 14h15 Lunch Break

14h15-14h45 Perspectives from the NGO sectors (Speaker to be nominated by ACFA)

14h45-15h15 Economic perspectives Indicators of recent economic performance by fishing fleets (Speaker to be nominated by JRC or STECF)

15h15-15h30 Management perspectives : Consultation on Fishing Opportunities for 2011 Kenneth Patterson (European Commission)

15h30-16h00 Questions and Discussion

16h00-16h15 Summing-up Maria Damanaki, European Commissioner for Maritime Affairs and Fisheries

Close not later than 16h30